- Are you, or have you got people in your church in their Twenties, Thirties or Forties?
- Would they like to meet other local Christians of similar ages?
- Would you like to get together on a regular social basis?
- Would you like local, well-organised events that you could take your non-Christian friends to?
- Would you like to help stage local larger events that are open to ALL AGES?
- Do you have a desire to see local, churches work together?

If you have answered yes to any of the above, please complete overleaf and return to us.

If you would like further information, you can contact us by filling in your details below and posting it to our registered address, or complete online via our Website. Please print and complete as appropriate. Thank you.
